

Newsletter

March: Rogue Trader.

In March PEWC will be turning back the clock to play a Rogue Trader Tournament.

Rob (Scrollmaster) is the evil genius behind this endeavor and he has posted the basic rules on the Forum if you're interested.

Roleplaying: Call of Cthulhu

For those who don't wish to play Rogue Trader, there's an alternative:

"The year is 1918 and a platoon of raw recruits, stationed in the trenches of France is about to experience the full horror of war"

There are places for up to six players, anyone interested should let George know.

Upcoming Events:

April: Necromunda

"Twenty years after the audacious escape of two delaque gangs at space port central and the subsequent and persistent purges of all affiliated gangs in the breakout, life eventually returned to normal until now!

Rumours are afoot that some of the escapees have returned and they are not quite what they should be, the local arbites have been despatched to deal with this new threat and have drawn a blank.

The guild has offered generous pay to any gang foolhardy brave enough to hunt down these usurpers and bring them to justice immediately.

Will all gang leaders please sign in themselves and their gang for the hunt, further details to be announced very soon.

guildmasters representative, Flangrim Belstram."

See Ian if you are interested.

May: Epic: Armageddon

In May we are planning on playing Epic: Armageddon, more details next month.

Final Words:

Check out the clubs Website at:

<http://www.pewc.co.uk>

The Club Forum at:

<http://www.pewc.co.uk/forums/>

You can send e-mail to the club at:

mail@pewc.co.uk

or to e-mail me with stuff for the newsletter:

undead_jon@yahoo.co.uk

Submissions for April's Newsletter must be in by Sunday April 4th.